Attorneys for Plaintiffs

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Fred Graves, et al.,)	No. CV 77-479-PHX-NVW
Plaintiffs,)	DECLARATION OF
)	MARGARET WINTER IN
v.)	SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS'
)	APPLICATION FOR
Joseph Arpaio, et al.,)	ATTORNEYS' FEES AND
)	RELATED NON-TAXABLE
Defendants.)	EXPENSES

Pursuant to 28 USC 1746, Margaret Winter declares the following to be true and correct, under penalty of perjury:

1. I am co-lead counsel for the Plaintiffs in the above-captioned case, together with Debra Hill of Osborn Maledon. I undertook this representation in

1 September 2007, replacing ACLU National Prison Project staff attorney David Fathi,
2 who was about to leave the NPP.

4 2. Plaintiffs seek to be reimbursed for attorneys' fees and non-taxable costs
5 that have been incurred by the National Prison Project ("NPP") in opposing 6 Defendants' Motion to Terminate the Amended Judgment, in the amount of 7 $643,381.56 for fees and $81,583.46 for non-taxable costs. An itemized report on 8 fees and non-taxable costs is attached to this Declaration as Exhibit 1. The 9 supporting documentation for non-taxable costs is attached as Exhibit 2.
10

11 3. I am familiar with the work performed in this case by the NPP. I make 12 the following statement on my personal knowledge and based on a review of the 13 records maintained by my office in the ordinary course of business.
14

15 4. The NPP, with seven staff lawyers and one litigation fellow, is the only 16 national organization litigating prison, jail and juvenile conditions of confinement.
17 With cases from California to the Virgin Islands, the NPP has a substantial docket of 18 trial and appellate work. NPP staff lawyers have argued six cases in the United States
19 Supreme Court, including three cases in which the Court appointed the Project. Since 20 its founding in 1972, the NPP has been committed to two basic priorities: promoting 21 progressive criminal justice policies that decrease our nation's over-reliance on 22 imprisonment as a means of social control; and fighting inhumane and 23 unconstitutional conditions of confinement for prisoners, detainees and juveniles. Our 24 litigation advocating for constitutional conditions of confinement focuses on provision 25
26
27
28

1 of medical care, including mental health care; protection from assault; and assuring
2 decent conditions in secure confinement facilities.

4 5. The NPP receives much of its funding through § 1988 fee awards and 5 whenever it accepts a case it must forego the opportunity to take some other
6 potentially fee-generating case. NPP accepts no fees from clients other than fees
7 awarded to plaintiffs by the Court, and NPP will be reimbursed, if at all, for its time
8 and litigation expenses in this case, only through an award by this Court under § 1988.

10 6. I have been a staff attorney with the NPP since 1993 and the Associate 11 Director of the NPP since 1996. I have been practicing law since 1976. My practice 12 has always focused on constitutional and civil rights. I am a member of the bars of the 13 highest courts of the District of Columbia and New York State. Since my 14 employment with the NPP in 1993 I have worked exclusively on prisoners' rights
15 cases and have served as counsel for plaintiffs in federal courts in many states
16 including Alabama, California, Delaware, Idaho, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, 17 Texas, Vermont, and Washington, D.C., almost always in class actions. I have been 18 admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court and the United States
19 Courts of Appeals for the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh, and District
20 of Columbia Circuits and the United States Supreme Court. I have briefed and argued 21 a prisoners' rights case before the United States Supreme Court, by appointment of the 22 Court (Young v. Harper, 520 U.S. 143 (1997)). I received my undergraduate degree, 23 magna cum laude, from St. John's College, Annapolis, and my law degree from 24 Georgetown University Law School.

1 7. The hourly rate Plaintiffs have requested for me and each of the other
2 lawyers in this case is $169.50. This is far below the market rate in Phoenix for 3 lawyers of comparable experience and qualifications, as set forth in the Declarations
4 of Debra Hill, Barry Mitchell, and Lee Stein. Indeed, the market rate for lawyers of 5 my experience and qualifications in Washington, D.C., where I practice, is currently 6 $650, as set forth in the Declaration of Elizabeth Alexander.

9 8. Set forth below are the qualifications of the NPP lawyers who worked 10 on the opposition to the termination motion.

11 9. David Fathi was a Staff Attorney with the NPP during the entire time he 12 worked on this case, from 2003 to 2007. He worked on prison and jail litigation for 13 over a decade. He received a B.S. from the University of Washington in 1984, a J.D.
14 from Boalt Hall School of Law at Berkeley University in 1988, and a Certificate of 15 Law from Federation of Law Societies of Canada in 1993. He is admitted to the 16 Supreme Court of the United States, Supreme Court of Washington, Supreme Court of 17 California (inactive), Supreme Court of British Columbia (inactive), United States
18 Courts of Appeals for the Fourth, Seventh, Ninth, and Tenth Circuits, and numerous 19 United States District Courts.
20
21
22

23 10. Amy Fettig is a Staff Attorney with the NPP. I assigned her to defend 24 the depositions of Dr. Goldenson and Jackie Clark in this case. She is a 1993 graduate 25 of Carleton College and a 2001 graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center.
26 She is a member of the bars of the State of New York and the District of Columbia.
27 She has been admitted to the bars of the Courts of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and 28

1 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and admitted pro hac vice in the 2 District of Nevada, the District of Rhode Island, and the Northern District of Texas.

4 11. Hanh Nguyen is a Litigation Fellow with the NPP. I assigned her to 5 work on and try this case with me. She received a B.A. from Brandeis University in 6 1999, an M.S.W. in social policy from Boston College Graduate School of Social
7 Work in 2001, and a J.D. from Boston College Law School in 2004. She is a member
8 of the bars of the State of California and the District of Columbia. She is admitted to 9 practice in the Northern District of California and the District Court of Arizona, pro
10 hac vice.

11
12 12. Eric Balaban is a Senior Staff Attorney with the NPP. He assisted me
13 with Dr. Stewart's tour and with chart review and other matters relating to the medical 14 and mental health portion of the case. He is a 1989 graduate of the University of 15 Pennsylvania, summa cum laude, and a 1994 graduate of the School of Law of the 16 University of Virginia. He is a member of the bars of the States of Maryland and 17 Pennsylvania (now inactive). He has also been admitted to the bars of the Supreme 18 Court of the United States; the Courts of Appeals for the Fourth, Fifth, Ninth, and 19 Eleventh Circuits; and admitted pro hac vice in the Eastern District of Louisiana, the 20 Northern District of Indiana, and the Districts of Montana, Idaho, the District of 21 Columbia, Vermont, Nevada, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. He has worked on 22 numerous prison and jail conditions cases.

23
24 13. Gabriel Eber is a Staff Attorney with the NPP. I assigned him to assist
25 with Dr. Goldenson's tour and with the review of detainee medical and mental health
26
27
28

1 charts. He received his A.B. from Harvard University in 1997, his M.P.H. from the 2 Johns Hopkins School of Public Health in 2002, and his J.D. from the Georgetown
3 University Law Center in 2004. He is a member of the bars of Maryland and the 4 District of Columbia. He has been admitted to the bars of multiple federal courts and 5 has been admitted to practice pro hac vice before state and federal courts.

8 14. Tom Jawetz is a Staff Attorney with the NPP. He received his A.B.
9 from Dartmouth College in 1999, and his J.D. from the Yale Law School in 2003. He 10 is a member of the bars of New York and the District of Columbia. He has been 11 admitted to practice pro hac vice to the United States District Courts for the Southern 12 District of California and the Western District of Texas.
13

14 15. Craig Cowie was a Litigation Fellow with the NPP from 2001 to 2004.
15 He is a 2000 graduate of University of California, Berkeley School of Law. He was a 16 clerk for the Honorable Sidney Thomas, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit,
17 from 2000 to 2001. He has been a partner at Jenner & Block, LLC, in Washington,
18 D.C., since January 2008, and an associate at Jenner & Block since 2004.
19

20 16. Jessica Feierman was a Litigation Fellow with the NPP in 2004. She 21 received a B.A. degree from Wesleyan University and a J.D. from the University of 22 Pennsylvania Law School and an LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center.
23 She has been admitted to the state bar of California and admitted to practice to the 24 Federal District Court of the Southern District of California. Before working at the 25 NPP, she was a law clerk for the Honorable Warren J. Ferguson of the Ninth Circuit
26 Court of Appeals.
27
28

1 17. We have billed for six of the eight law clerks who worked with the NPP
2 since 2003 on the opposition to the termination motion. Their qualifications and the 3 rates billed are set forth below.

5 18. Darcy Hirsh and Susan Pourciau were second-year law students clerking
6 for the NPP in the spring and summer of 2008 when I assigned them to work on this 7 case. Ms. Hirsh is now a third-year student at Benjamin Cardozo Law School; Ms.
8 Pourciau is now a third-year law student at Duke University Law School. They 9 analyzed documents produced in discovery and assisted with legal research. Ms.
10 Pourciau also assisted me at the termination hearing in August 2008. NPP has billed
11 their time at the hourly rate of $150. This is the standard market rate for law student 12 clerks in Washington, D.C., as set forth in the Declaration of Elizabeth Alexander, and 13 is commensurate with the market rate in Phoenix for second-year clerks, as set forth in 14 the Declarations of Debbie Hill, Barry Mitchell, and Lee Stein.

17 19. We have billed at the hourly rate of $110 for four law clerks who 18 worked for the NPP on this matter from 2003 to 2006. The qualifications of these 19 clerks are as follows: Naila Siddiqui was a first year law clerk with the NPP in 2006.
20 She received her J.D. from Stanford Law School in May of 2008. She received a B.A.
21 from Yale University, magna cum laude, in 2005. Steven Siger was a first year law
22 clerk at the NPP in 2006. He received a J.D. from Stanford Law School in May of 23 2008 after receiving a B.A. from Yale University, magna cum laude in 2005. Sheku
24 Sheikholeslami was a second year law clerk at the NPP in 2004. She received a J.D.
25 from American University School of Law in 2006. Kevin Clune was a first year law
26
27
28

1 clerk at the NPP in 2003. He graduated from Stanford Law School in 2006 after
2 receiving his Bachelors' degree from University of Michigan in 2002. The rate NPP
3 has billed for these clerks is below the standard market rate for law student clerks in 4 Washington, D.C., as set forth in the Declaration of Elizabeth Alexander, and is 5 equivalent to or, in the case of second year clerk Sheikholeslami, lower than the 6 Phoenix rates for such clerks, as set forth in the Declarations of Debbie Hill, Barry
7 Mitchell, and Lee Stein.

10 20. All of the attorneys and law clerks for whom fees are sought here are 11 highly competent and qualified and their services were vital to the successful
12 preparation of Plaintiffs' case.
13

14 21. The itemized report attached here as Exhibit 1 details the time and 15 expenses incurred by NPP in connection with the representation of Plaintiffs in this 16 matter. NPP's policy and standard business practice with respect to recording billable 17 time requires each legal staff member on a daily basis to record the time that he or she 18 spends on a particular task, in increments of one-tenth of an hour, and enter those 19 times into NPP's computerized billing system. NPP also has kept the records for 20 reimbursable litigation costs in this case according to its policies and business
21 practice, and entered those costs into its computerized record-keeping system. The 22 costs billed here are those incurred by NPP in this matter that would normally be 23 billed to a paying client. Since mid-August 2004, NPP has used the Timeslips
24 program as its computerized billing system; before that time NPP used the Michael 25 Stein 1989 Microsoft Windows 3.1 program.
26
27
28

1 22. NPP's business policy and business practice with respect to in-house
2 photocopying, which was followed in this case, is to assign a case-code as an internal
3 client billing number in each case, and manually enter this code in the photocopier
4 whenever copies are made for that case. NPP's photocopier requires the entry of a
5 unique case-specific number before any documents can be copied. The copier keeps 6 in memory monthly totals by case number. The monthly totals are entered into the 7 respective expense summaries for each case handled in the office. NPP assigned the 8 Arpaio matter a case code to be used in this case only and only for copies necessary
9 and related to the case.
10

12 23. NPP has billed photocopies in this case at the rate of twenty-five cents
13 per copy, the well-established rate for photocopies in the Washington D.C. market,
14 and the rate at which NPP bills photocopies in all its cases.
15

16 24. NPP policy and business practice, which was followed in this case, 17 requires that the case code assigned to each litigation matter be used in making long-
18 distance calls in connection with this case. NPP's telephone system is programmed so 19 that in order to make a long-distance call a code must be entered.
20

21 25. Similarly, NPP policy and business practice, which was followed in this 22 case, requires that the assigned case code be used in all mailings associated with the 23 case, and that those items, and only those items, be entered in the expense report each 24 month. NPP uses an electronic postage machine, which requires unique case codes to 25 print postage.
26
27
28

1 26. I have reviewed the NPP time and expense report and am satisfied that
2 the time and expenses included in the report were reasonable and necessary. I
3 reviewed the records for entry errors, such as misplaced decimal points and duplicate
4 entries, and corrected any errors I found. I exercised billing judgment by omitting
5 hours that appeared to me redundant or excessive in relation to the task performed. In 6 the exercise of billing judgment, I did not bill for any of the hundreds of hours NPP's
7 paralegal Alicia Gathers spent in this case because I determined that the tasks she 8 performed in this case were largely secretarial in nature, such as photocopying and 9 maintaining exhibits and pleadings files. I estimate that I spent at least seven hours in 10 this case speaking with the local and national press, which were keenly interested in a 11 case of this public importance; I did not bill for any of this time I spent speaking with 12 the media. I have "no charged" the 36 hours spent on this matter by NPP law clerks
13 Anu Subramanian and Ellen Scott in 2003, since, although they were well qualified, 14 we were unable to locate our credentials files for these two clerks.

15 27. Expert fees in this case totaled $112,745, and that expense, which is 16 non-reimbursable under current law, has been borne and will continue to be borne 17 exclusively by the ACLU. The burden on the ACLU of expert fees in this case has 18 been so heavy as to seriously reduce NPP's ability to take on new cases for some time 19 to come.

20 28. NPP took responsibility for preparing and presenting the Plaintiffs' case 21 on medical and mental health care and also took primary responsibility for briefing the 22 legal issues relating to the Prison Litigation Reform Act. The case required virtually 23
25
26
27
28

1 full-time work for four months by me and by NPP's litigation fellow Hanh Nguyen in 2 preparing for and participating in the hearing.

4 29. Plaintiffs' case was a particularly undesirable one to the private bar,
5 because it challenged a wide range of conditions in the third-largest jail in the nation,
6 making the case especially resource-intensive; the cost of retaining competent 7 medical, psychiatric, and correctional experts exceeded $112,000, not recoverable as 8 litigation expenses; and Defendants relied heavily on the Jails' NCCHC accreditation
9 in publicly touting the Jail's compliance with constitutional requirements.
10

11 30. The fees and costs in the attached report are those incurred through 12 December 5, 2008. At the time we file our reply memorandum in support of our 13 motion for fees and costs, we will provide the Court with reports of any supplemental 14 fees and costs as of that time. We anticipate providing the Court with supplemental 15 requests as additional fees and costs are incurred in connection with this case.
